Professor S. E. MacLennan,
Oberlin College,
Oberlin.

My dear Professor MacLennan:

Many thanks for your letter about Mr. Ian Hannah. I regret that we are unable to do anything for Mr. Hannah, but this year our positions in English and History are all filled, and we have no extension work that we could give him. In fact we are cutting expenses down to the lowest possible level.

We have our own difficulties at present through popular clamour against the Germans. In time of war people lose their heads and create a situation that causes great delicacy of handling.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.
